

INFLUX.AI – SYNTHETIC CUSTOMER SUPPORT KNOWLEDGE BASE

General Company Questions

Q: What does Influx AI specialize in?

A: Influx AI builds Intelligence Layers that integrate AI into enterprise systems, covering design, deployment, and optimization.

Q: How can I contact Influx AI support?

A: Customers can contact support via the website contact form or the official support number listed in the knowledge base.

Service Inquiries

Q: Does Influx AI build custom AI chatbots?

A: Yes, the company develops custom RAG-based AI assistants with enterprise guardrails and source citations.

Q: Do you offer workflow automation?

A: Yes, workflow automation solutions are production-ready and designed for operational efficiency.

Technical Questions

Q: What frameworks are used for web development?

A: The company primarily uses Next.js for frontend and Django APIs for backend services.

Q: Do you support vector databases for AI search?

A: Yes, vector database integration is part of RAG pipeline deployment.

Project & Onboarding

Q: What information is required to start a project?

A: Customers must submit their name, email, organization, selected service, and project scope via the contact portal.

Q: How long does onboarding take?

A: Initial onboarding typically begins within one business day after form submission.